MS. MARÍA JOSÉ CANEL CRESPO

PhD in Communication (University of Navarra, Spain), Public Management Leadership Program (IESE), Professor of Political Communication and Public Sector, Universidad Complutense de Madrid, Spain. Visiting Scholar at the London School of Economics (1992), Jyväskylä University (2014, 2015), George Washington University (2016-2017), KU Leuven (2022).

She is Co-Chair of the Political Marketing and Communication section of the European Group for Public Administration (EGPA) and founding president of ACOP. Advisor and General Director of the Cabinet of the Minister of Education, Culture and Sport (00-04). Leading researcher in political communication, she is the 2nd most cited author in Spain, and Victory Awards to one of the 12 most influential women in Political Communication (Washington, 2016).

She has more than a hundred publications in Spain, United States, Italy, United Kingdom, Poland, Brazil, Mexico, Colombia, and Argentina (she has published in Portuguese, Italian, English, Polish, Catalan and Spanish).

She has worked in several electoral campaigns and in the coordination of government and presidential communication, as well as in the communication of migration, educational, cultural, equality and environmental policies of national, regional and local public administrations.